

The international company InstaForex is strengthening its leadership on the market of Forex brokers, implementing top-notch trading instruments, modern technologies of trading and widening the line of services. The high growth pace, development dynamics in all directions as well as the reliability and safeguard of InstaForex Company has been already appraised by over 200, 000 of customers.

The success achieved by InstaForex recently was estimated not only by traders and partners, but also by the major business publications in Europe. For the second year in line an authoritative British magazine World Finance named InstaForex Company "Best Broker – Asia" under the framework of a significant financial world award "World Finance Award".

The awards Best Broker – Asia ,2009 and 2010 have become the reflection of the company's expansion in many directions as well as of its stability.

InstaForex expresses gratitude for the honor which the organizers of the award represented by "World Finance" have granted to our Company, as well as to thousands of traders who voted for InstaForex, having joined us.

You can be conversant with the voting totals , and the whole article about InstaForex Company awarding with "The Best Broker in Asia 2010" title adjudged by The World Finance magazine right now using the link to the electronic magazine version on open access.

Awarding and interview with InstaForex representative

Best Forex Broker in Asia award within the frameworks of the World Finance Awards 2010

The expert group of one of the leading business publication in financial, economic and policy field - World Finance, consisting of the most prominent professionals in the financial sphere declared InstaForex Company as a winner in the award for the nomination Best Broker of Asia in 2010 on the following criteria:

- project's management
- the high level of competitive ability
- market leadership and geographic covering
- innovation and originality
- the confirmation of a constant development
- the level of transparency and quality control
- the high level of presence in the global network
- favorable reports in MSM

Awarded journalists, reporters, analysts and experts of entire world enter the editorial staff of World Finance magazine. The magazine is distributed all over the world; the leading representatives of business are its readers. The jury, which gives independent awards of World Finance magazine, has used different criteria for determining the most interesting nominations of 2010 and their most worthy holders. Thus, during the voting it was necessary to estimate innovativeness and originality of a company, the ability to run projects, competitive ability and market leadership, and also the evidence of development and transparency of activity. On all enumerated criteria InstaForex Company could run away other finalists in the nomination "Best Broker of Asia", confirming its high status.

InstaForex Company appreciates the given honor and confidence and thanks organizers of the World Finance Awards represented by the international financial publication World Finance, our clients and partners, who voted for the company, and also our team for the achieved results.

SEO by AceSEF